2010 MRCA Impact Award

Chicagoland Roofing Council Member wins MRCA Impact Award

Hillside IL, Nov. 5, 2010

Ridgeworth Roofing Co., Inc. won the MRCA Impact Award for services and materials donated for a new roof at the Shady Oaks Rehabilitation Camp. Since 1947, the Shady Oaks facility provides a summer camp for children and adults with cerebral palsy including swimming, horseback riding, and other activities.

The MRCA Impact Award recognizes an MRCA member company that has demonstrated a commitment to improving the well-being of communities or individuals through philanthropy or community service demonstrated at a local or national level. The honor was awarded at MRCA's Annual Meeting.

Rod Petrick, President of Ridgeworth, is a Past President of the Midwest Roofing Contractors Association, Chicago Roofing Contractors Association and current Chairman of the Chicagoland Roofing Council. "Ridgeworth's commitment to the community has been a key to our success over many years.", stated Petrick". Ridgeworth Roofing Co., Inc., operating since 1974, is a second generation roofing contractor based in Bridgeview, IL.
